The Terms and Conditions in all our lesson packages state that refunds are not accepted. However, The Claude Harmon Academy and The Els Club understands that the situation of our valued students can change and they are unable to finish lesson packages they have begun due to unforeseen circumstances. While refunds will not be available we have 3 options to help students who may wish to alter their packages due to unforeseen circumstances:

- Students can extend the closing end date of the package. A valid reason must be given and approved by the Director of Instruction. The length of the extension will be based on each individual situation.
- Students can sell or gift the lessons to a friend or third party. To do this please inform Reception who this person will be and provide their contact details.
- Transfer the value of the remaining lessons for the equivalent value in online lessons.
